LOT 73 - 1940s Vintage HALLS SUPERIOR QUALITY KITCHENWARE Bowl/Platinum Trim

Description

This is a really nice, vintage, Blue Bouquet 9 inch diameter Straight Side Platinum trim. Brand mark on bottom, HALLS SUPERIOR QUALITY KITCHENWARE -

Robert Hall founded the Hall China Company, in East Liverpool, Ohio, in 1919. Production of Hall teapots began in 1919 and continued until the pottery c

The Blue Bouquet pattern were produced 1942-1965, and were popular in the South like Louisiana with its connection to Standard Coffee. Families who drank Standard Coffee were given coupons they could redeem for dishes.

In good vintage condition. There is some wear including the platinum rim. I see no chips, cracks or dings.

Diameter 8 3/4" inches

There are a few light surface scratches and uneven spots of discoloration around the bottom rim of the bowl where it sits on the table. I also noticed small black marks. What the heck? According to Instructables website, "The penetrated moisture combined with organic matter (Tea & coffee, oil, fat, food, dust, etc.) evolves into a bacteria that typically is brown or black sitting between the glazed craze lines or in the clay body under the glaze. Now you know.

As always, as is.
