LOT 99 - Newfoundland Base Contractors Brass Pin Q #10448

Description

Newfoundland Base Contractors Brass Pin Q #10448

This Newfoundland Base Contractors brass pin, marked Q #10448, is a historical piece from World War II. Worn by workers who were involved in the construction and maintenance of U.S. military bases in Newfoundland during the war, the pin served as a symbol of their crucial role in supporting the Allied war effort. Made of brass, it features a simple yet distinctive design, marking the wearer's affiliation with the military base contractors. This collectible pin offers insight into the significant contribution of Newfoundland's workforce to the defense infrastructure during the Second World War.
