LOT 26 - The Last Voyage of the Karluk By Captain Robert Bartlett and Jack Hale (1916)

Description

The Last Voyage of the Karluk

By Captain Robert Bartlett and Jack Hale (1916)

The Last Voyage of the Karluk (1916) recounts the ill-fated Arctic expedition aboard the ship Karluk, which was led by Captain Robert Bartlett and intended to explore the northernmost regions of the Arctic. The ship became trapped in ice, and the crew was forced to endure extreme conditions in an attempt to survive. Written by Bartlett, who was one of the few to survive, along with co-author Jack Hale, the book details the harrowing experiences of the crew, the efforts to escape, and the challenges of Arctic exploration. It's a dramatic and tragic account of human endurance and the perils of polar expeditions.
