LOT 182 - Set of 6 Newfoundland Coins – Type set in case

Description

This set of six Newfoundland coins offers a unique glimpse into the numismatic history of Newfoundland before it joined Canada in 1949. Each coin represents a different denomination and era, showcasing the distinct designs, craftsmanship, and monetary heritage of Newfoundland as an independent dominion.

The coins come in a carefully curated type set, encased in a protective presentation case that highlights each piece's details while preserving its condition. With coins ranging from copper cents to silver 5-cent, 10-cent, 25-cent, and a 50 cent piece, this set captures the diversity and charm of Newfoundland's currency. Ideal for collectors of Canadian and historical currency, this type set celebrates Newfoundland's rich legacy as a proud and distinct part of Canadian history.
