About Mia Rowand: Mia started her hair journey in 2020 and later moved to Vancouver to complete the Blanche Macdonald program. She has competed in cutting, colouring, and bridal competitions in different provinces and loves to challenge herself in all things hair. She has experience working in TV and film, photoshoots and creative collectives. Education is super important to Mia, not only for herself but her clients as well. She enjoys marrying colour and cut together, creating designs suited for her clients lifestyle. She can't wait to see you in her chair!
